Bidders claiming any preference shall submit relevant and valid registration certificate along with the tender in terms of the relevant Orders/Notifications issued by appropriate Authority/Government.

j) Purchaser reserves the option to increase / decrease the quantity to the extent of 25% of the tendered quantity.

k) Purchaser reserves the right to accept or reject any quotation in full or part thereof by recording the reasons. The Purchaser shall be under no obligation to accept the lowest or any tender and reserves the right to accept whole or any part of the tender or part of the quantity offered and the bidders shall supply the same at the rates quoted.

l) Purchaser reserves the right to enter into parallel contract unless the instructions are otherwise in the RFP.

m) Purchaser also reserves the right to reject any offer in the event of non-compliance to tender terms and conditions or where the prices are not viable vis-a-vis the scope of the contract.

n) A bidder can question the bidding conditions, bidding process and / or rejection of its bid.

o) Any clarification on the tender shall be sought from the Purchaser well in advance of the tender closing date but in any case, it should not be within 7 days of bid closing date.

p) Public Tenders shall be opened in the presence of the authorized representative of the bidders. In case the tenders cannot be opened due to holiday or technical reasons the tender will be opened on the next working day.

11. FORCE MAJEURE

(a) Neither party shall bear responsibility for the complete or partial nonperformance of any of his obligations (except for failure to pay any sum which has become due on account of receipt of goods under the provisions of the present Purchase Order/Contract) if the non-performance results from such force majeure circumstances such as, but not restricted to, flood, fire, earthquake, civil commotion, sabotage, explosion, epidemic, quarantine restriction, strike, lock-out, freight embargo, acts of the Government either in its sovereign or Contractual capacity, hostility, acts of public enemy and other acts of God as well as war or revolution, military operation, blockade, acts or actions of State authorities or any other circumstance beyond the control of the parties that have arisen after the conclusion of the present Purchase Order/Contract.

(b) In such circumstances, the time stipulated for the performance of an obligation under the Purchase Order/Contract may be proportionately extended.

(c) The party for whom it has become impossible to meet the obligation under this Contract due to force majeure condition, will notify the other party in writing not later than twenty one days from the date of commencement of the unforeseeable event. Unless otherwise directed by the Physical Research Laboratory in writing, the contractor/supplier shall continue to perform his obligations under the Purchase Order/Contract as far as is practical and shall seek all reasonable alternative means for performance not prevented by the force majeure event.

(d) Any certificate issued by the Chamber of Commerce or any other competent authority or organization of the respective country shall be sufficient proof of commencement and cessation of the above circumstances.

(e) In case of failure to carry out complete or partial performance of an obligation for more than sixty days, either party shall reserve the right to terminate the Contract totally or partially. A prior written notice of 30 days to the other party will be given informing of the intention to terminate without any liability. This is exclusive of any reimbursements for the goods received as provided for in the agreement.

d)If, in the opinion of the Purchaser, it becomes necessary to replace or rectify any defective stores, such replacement or rectification shall be made by the Contractor free of all costs to the Purchaser.

e)Should the Contractor fail to rectify the defects, the Purchaser shall have the right to reject or repair or replace at the cost of the Contractor the whole or any portion of the defective stores.

f)The decision of the Purchaser, notwithstanding any prior approval or acceptance or inspection thereof on behalf of the Purchaser, as to whether or not the stores supplied by the Contractor are defective or any defect has developed within the guarantee / warranty period or as to whether the nature of the defects requires renewal or replacement, shall be final, conclusive and binding on the Contractor.

g)All the replacement stores shall have guarantee / warranty from the date of receipt & acceptance of the stores at Purchaser's site.

13. ARBITRATION CLAUSE

If any dispute or difference or claims of any kind arises in connection with Contract, such dispute or difference or claim shall be referred by either party to the Arbitration. The Indian Arbitration and Conciliation Act, 1996 and any statutory modifications or re-enactment thereof, rules made there under and for the time being in force shall be applicable to the Arbitration. The arbitral tribunal shall consist of three arbitrators. Each party to the dispute shall appoint one arbitrator and the two arbitrators so appointed by the parties shall appoint the third arbitrator who shall act as the 'Presiding Arbitrator'.

Any party shall, after appointing an arbitrator within thirty days of arising of any dispute, request the other party in writing to appoint the second arbitrator. If such other party fails to appoint an arbitrator within thirty days of receipt of the written request to do so, such arbitrator shall at the request of the first party, be appointed in accordance with Arbitration and Conciliation Act, 1996. If the two arbitrators appointed by or on behalf the parties fail to agree on the appointment of the third arbitrator within thirty days of the appointment of second arbitrator and if the parties do not otherwise agree, at the request of either party, the third arbitrator shall be appointed in accordance with Arbitration and Conciliation Act, 1996. If any of the arbitrators fails or is unable to act, his successor shall be appointed by the party or person who originally appointed such arbitrator in the manner set out in this clause as if he was the first appointment.

The decision of the arbitral tribunal shall be pronounced within four months unless otherwise extended by the parties, and in case of difference among the arbitrators, the decision of the majority shall be final and binding on the parties. The right to arbitrate disputes under this Contract shall also survive even after expiry or the termination of this Contract. The venue of arbitration proceedings pursuant to this clause shall be India at Ahmedabad and shall be conducted in the English language. Pending the submission of and /or decision on a dispute, difference or claim or until the arbitral award is published; the parties shall continue to perform all their obligations under this Contract without prejudice to a final adjustment in accordance with such award. Regarding fee and any other expenses incurred in connection with the arbitral proceedings and the arbitral award, the arbitral Tribunal shall have the discretion to determine (a) whether costs are payable by one party to another; (b) the amount of such costs; and (c) when such costs are to be paid.
